

Eastbourne 9 August 2008

Eastbourne is famous for its beaches. From the tranquil hide-away Falling Sands Beach at the foot of Beachy Head to the popular stretch of beach which runs between the Pier and the Wish Tower.

Five miles of promenade run along the beaches leading you past the stunning Carpet Gardens, the famous 1930s bandstand, historic Napoleonic Towers and the smartly restored Victorian Pier.

Travel Details

- All seats are £5.00
- To book your seat, please contact Mrs Balwant K Rehal or Mrs Gurjinder K Thethi
- Coach departs at 7.45am and is scheduled to arrive back at 8pm
- Coach pickup and drop off point is Nanak Darbar Gurdwara, 136 High Road, London N11 1PJ
- Journey time is approx 2 hours

Highlights

- Beachy Head is the highest chalk sea cliff in Britain
- Eastbourne Pier
- Carpet Gardens on the Promenade

